1 Billion Young People Are Entering The Global Workforce.

Are Your Students Ready to Compete?
Exploring Your Potential™

The revolutionary online program that puts a fresh spin on career planning and workforce readiness.

Exploring Your Potential™ is a revolutionary new online program that puts a fresh spin on career planning and workforce readiness. In this highly engaging, interactive online format, students are coached through compelling multimedia lessons. The curriculum includes inspiring quotes, worksheets, activities, and videos from a wide range of industry pros, making this an invaluable resource for forward-thinking educators and institutions everywhere.

For Students

EYP inspires young adults to take control of their lives and futures by crafting careers sculpted just for them. Students identify their talents, passions and goals; develop their value propositions; explore the best ways to market themselves based on their strengths and industries; and put their ambitions into action so they are motivated to pursue their own definitions of success.

For Academic Institutions

EYP can serve as a foundational curriculum or augment existing programs or classes. It is flexible, modular and packed with compelling content that can be leveraged and consumed in a variety of ways. When used in a blended learning environment, the program instantly comes to life, sparking compelling live discussions on topics rarely considered by students. Organizations also gain invaluable insights and data able to drive programmatic decisions that better meet student needs.

“EYP has inspired and motivated me to get out there more often and seize opportunities. The knowledge I obtained from this program I will hold onto for many years to come.”
—Austin S., California State University Long Beach

“EYP helps you understand your career potential in the context of global possibilities. It shapes and broadens your perspectives so that when it comes to finding employment or making career choices, you are more capable, proactive, and independent in your efforts.”
—Juan A., California State University - Long Beach

Switching majors is a huge cost and problem for most universities and colleges. EYP helps students make more strategic choices about what they want to do based on who they are. This can translate to fewer students switching majors mid-college career, minimizing related costs.

20-50% of students enter college as undecided.
75% of students change their major at least once before graduation.
